

Highlights of DSDDS 2012

The annual event organised by TERI is preceded by the World CEO Sustainability Summit which this year took place on February 1, 2012, at Delhi.

This year, it was rechristened as The World CEO Sustainability Summit which saw participation from over 1,000 Indian and international CEOs, senior government representatives and thought leaders discussing the overarching theme Doing Business-While Protecting the Global Commons. Also held on the same day, a special event Women and the Green Economy, an initiative of the Earth Day Network had a high-level panel comprising women leaders from all walks of life discuss ways in which women can have a greater role to play in the emerging green economy. The 4th YUVA Meet held on January 30 and 31, also focused on Conserving the Global Commons: Transforming Knowledge into Action.

Here are some more high points of Delhi Sustainable Development Summit, 2012:

Sustainable Development Leadership Award

Instituted by TERI in 2005, to felicitate the efforts of global leaders in the field of sustainable development, the award encourages global initiatives towards leading the world to a sustainable future.

Green Globe Foundation Awards

The Green Globe Foundation Awards recognise the endeavours of individuals and organisations who have contributed immeasurably to the environment and the sustainable development movement, therefore impacting India.
