Mr Bittu Sahgal is Editor of the Sanctuary Asia magazine. He is also member of the National Board for Wildlife, India and the founder of “Kids for Tigers, the Sanctuary Tiger Programme”, which reaches out to over a million Indian children. His primary involvements are the twin issues of biodiversity protection and climate change and he works with colleagues to promote non-carbon energy options and the valuation of ecosystem services.