MS JAYANTHI NATARAJAN
Hon’ble Minister of State (Independent Charge), Ministry of Environment and Forests, Government of India

Smt. Jayanthi Natarajan is Minister of State (Independent Charge), Ministry of Environment and Forests, Government of India. She has been elected for the fourth time as Member of Parliament, representing the state of Tamil Nadu in the Rajya Sabha. She has represented India at various International Parliamentary fora, including the Inter Parliamentary Union and United Nations. She has studied law and is a practicing advocate in Madras. She also did pro bono work for a number of social organizations, including the All India Women’s Conference, and the legal aid board. She has special interest in environmental, legal aid, and women’s right issues.