

Dr. R.K. Pachauri

Dr. Rajendra Kumar Pachauri is the Chair of the Nobel Peace Prize-winning Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), the scientific intergovernmental body that provides decision-makers and the public with an objective source of information about climate change. He is also Director General of TERI (The Energy and Resources Institute), a major independent research organisation providing knowledge on energy, environment, forestry, biotechnology, and the conservation of natural resources. Dr Pachauri is a prominent researcher on environmental subjects, recognised internationally for his efforts to build up and disseminate greater knowledge about man-made climate change and to lay the foundations for the measures that are needed to counteract such change. He was Senior Adviser to Yale Climate and Energy Institute (YCEI) from July 2012 through June 2014, prior to which he was the Founding Director of YCEI (July 2009 – June 2012). He is active in several international forums dealing with the subject of climate change and its policy dimensions. He was awarded the second-highest civilian award in India, the 'Padma Vibhushan' in January 2008 by the President of India and received the 'Officier De La Légion D'Honneur' from the Government of France in 2006. He has been conferred with the 'Commander of the Order of Leopold II' by the King of the Belgians in July 2009; the 'Commander of the Order of the White Rose of Finland' by the Prime Minister of Finland in February, 2010; 'The Order of the Rising Sun, Gold and Silver Star' by His Majesty Akihito, Emperor of Japan in April 2010; and Mexican Order of the 'Aztec Eagle' by the President of Mexico in June 2012; and 'Knight of the Order of the Star of Italy' by the President of the Republic of Italy in February, 2014.
