

Naina Lal Kidwai is Executive Director on the board of HSBC Asia-Pacific and Chairman HSBC India. She is Non-Executive Director of Nestle S.A. and Immediate Past President of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI), India's leading and oldest industry association, being its first woman President in 85 years.

She is India's representative on the BRICs Business Council and India Malaysia CEO Forum, and on the Governing Boards of the National Council of Applied Economic Research and the National Institute of Bank Management. She is also a Global Advisor for Harvard Business School and the Chair of its India Advisory Board, and member of the City of London's Advisory Council for India.

She has been a member of the Government of India's Industry Task Force, the Prime Minister's Trade and Industry Council, the National Manufacturing Council, the National Trade Council, and on the Working Group on Banking, Financial Sector Legislative Reforms Commission.

An MBA from Harvard Business School, she makes a regular appearance since 2002, on listings by Fortune and others of international women in business. She has received many awards and honours in India and was awarded the Padma Shri, for her contribution to Trade & Industry, from the Government of India in 2007. She has edited a book "Contemporary Banking in India".

Her interests include women empowerment through livelihoods and environment issues where she is Vice Chair of the World Economic Forum's Global Agenda Council on Water, on the Advisory Council of the Inquiry for United Nations Environment Program (UNEP) and on the boards of not-for-profit organisations, Shakti Sustainable Energy Foundation and TERI (The Energy and Resources Institute).