

Biography – Erik Brandsma

Erik Brandsma is Director General of the Swedish Energy Agency. Erik has a MSc in Natural Resources Management, SFU Vancouver Canada. Previous work experience includes Department of Strategic Planning, Ministry of Environment, Netherlands, Advisor Director's Office at Environment Directorate, OECD, Paris and Task Manager Sustainable Consumption & Production at the United Nations Commission on Sustainable Development, New York, US. Before joining the Swedish Energy Agency Erik worked as VP Corporate Responsibility and Sustainability at EON AG, Dusseldorf, Germany and Vattenfall AB, Stockholm, Sweden.