

Ashish Mathur

Ashish Mathur is a seasoned professional with rich cross functional, multinational experience in all aspects of business in a career spanning over 30 years. Presently working as Managing Director – JUSCO, a TATA Group Enterprise, the only company in India comprehensively building and managing city level infrastructure, utilities and services, Ashish has spearheaded major developments like Satellite Cities, Special Economic Zones, Integrated Business Cities, and Industrial Parks etc. in India.

In addition to his role as the Managing Director of JUSCO, Ashish is the Chairman of Nabadiganta Water Ltd - a JV between JUSCO and Voltas in Kolkata, Chairman of JEM Foundation- the education mission, Convener of Municipal Water Sub Committee at CII national level and Convener of Infrastructure Committee, CII Jharkhand. He is also part of many other social organisations.

Earlier, Ashish has an enriching international experience with Marine Engineering & Shipbuilding, Business – Start up to stabilisation, Asset Management & Administration, Large Scale Multi – Utility Operations and Real Estate. He has steered the entire course of Business Planning & Execution, Processes & Systems Implementation etc. and has significantly contributed to the organisations with his deep insight in to business development by taking overall charge as the profit centre head.