

Gaurav Sarup

Gaurav has over 13 years of experience in diverse industries, with 8 of those in sustainability management. He has worked with some of India's leading sustainability teams, such as those at Cairn India and Tata Power. Currently he leads Sustainability at Vedanta Limited. He has also led the Sustainability function at Cairn Oil & Gas. Prior to joining Vedanta, Gaurav was the head of the Corporate Sustainability Practice at Emergent Ventures India where he worked with many of India's leading companies – ONGC, HPCL, GAIL, Mother Dairy, Mahindra Steel, etc – developing their sustainability reporting, audit/ assurance, due diligence, and strategy programs. He has an MBA in Sustainability Management from Boston College and a degree in Economics and Management of Information Systems from Iowa State University.