

Palak Thakur

Ms Palak Thakur is working with The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI), New Delhi, India as a Research Associate in the Transport and Urban Governance Division. Her focus areas include policy advocacy for clean fuel technology based Intermediate public transport sector and investment analysis for energy efficient urban transport policies. Before TERI, she has work experience of 2 years in consultancy, IL&FS Urban Mass Transit Company where she was working as a senior officer involved in transportation projects. She was the project manager for the Knowledge Management Portal for urban transport. She was also involved in several technical studies like Integrated Comprehensive Mobility Plan for Noida and Greater Noida and Undertaking Applied Research to assess Level of Service in 6 cities for various Service Level Benchmarks for urban transport. She is an Infrastructure planner by training from the Guru Ram Dass School of Planning, GNDU, Amritsar and an Associate Member of the Institute of Town Planners, India and member of Institute of transport, India.