

Sanjeev R Joshi

Sanjeev R Joshi is the Senior Vice President of Projects at Experion Developers, Gurgaon. He graduated as a Civil Engineer from NIT- Surathkal with Management Diploma. He developed Purchase, Procurement & Contracts Strategy. He is closely managing the company's procurement & contracting process from bid evaluation & recommendation to change management and correspondence. He has proven abilities in overseeing the construction of buildings & industrial structures. He is effectively coordinating with various agencies involved in design, cost, procurement & execution. He is a construction & project management professional with hands-on experience gained during construction of aluminium plants, cement plants, thermal & nuclear power plants, mass housing projects and apartments, public buildings, IT & ITES facilities. He demonstrated professional competence in heading major construction projects with responsibility for planning, project delivery, project management, cost & budgetary controls. He is an excellent communicator with clarity of thought & expression. He has effective interpersonal skills; ability to build and lead effective teams.