

Ravi Narayanan*CBE, former CEO, Water Aid and International Mentor, Japan Water Forum

Ravi Narayanan, currently Chair of the Asia Pacific Water Forum, International Mentor to the Japan Water Forum, Chair of the Water Integrity Network, an international organization registered in Berlin and Advisor to the Arghyam Foundation in India, has twenty years of experience in the corporate sector and over thirty in the not for profit sector, first with ActionAid as Country Director for India, then Director for International Operations and finally as Asia Director. He was also formerly the Chief Executive of WaterAid and a member of the UN Millennium Task Force on Water and Sanitation and the World Panel on Financing Water Infrastructure. He was awarded an honorary CBE by the UK Government in 2009 for his services to the poor in countries in Africa and Asia.