

WSDS 2018 | Thematic Track

Strengthening an evidence-based policy framework for sustainable transport

Date: 15/Feb/2018 | Venue: Gulmohar, India Habitat Centre, Delhi | Time: 16:00 to 18:00

Agenda

1530 to 1600 hrs: Registration Tea
1600 to 1620 hrs
Welcome remarks	Mr Prabir Sengupta, Distinguished Fellow, TERI
Keynote address	Mr Mohd Jamshed, Member Traffic Railway Board and Secretary to Government of India
Special address	Professor Yoshitsugu Hayashi, Professor of Chubu University, Emeritus Professor of Nagoya University, Japan.
Vote of thanks	Mr T.P. Sankar, Fellow, Knowledge Management, TERI
1620 to 1740: Presentation-cum-Panel Discussion
Good quality and regularly updated data in respect of Indian transport sector is essential to strengthen evidence-based policy framework and research
CHAIR
Mr Shri Prakash, Distinguished Fellow, TERI
PANELISTS (10 to 12 minutes each)
Status and issues in India's transport statistics
Mr Arvind Kumar, Adviser, TERI, New Delhi [formerly Senior Adviser - Transport Research, Ministry of Road Transport & Highways, Government of India]
Harmonisation of international data collections
Mr Mario BARRETO, International Transport Forum/OECD, Paris
Data integration for road safety and urban transportation planning
Prof. Dinesh Mohan, Emeritus Fellow, Indian Institute of Technology-Delhi, New Delhi
Mobility for All through Data for All
Ms Ruchi Varma, Programme Manager - Urban Development, Open Cities Institute
Data challenges in urban transport policy making
Ms Palak Thakur, Research Associate, Centre for Sustainable Mobility, TERI
1740 to 1800 hrs – OPEN HOUSE DISCUSSION
1800 : End of Programme

Supported by

