

Meinolf Drüeke

Mr. Drueke, is the head of department Air Pollution Control and Waste Management in the federal state Mecklenburg-Vorpommern in Guestrow/Germany. Prior to this he worked as in the field of Air Quality Management in the federal State Saxony in Dresden/Germany. He has also worked with Freiburg/Germany and university of Trier, Germany

Mr. Drueke holds international work experience with around 100 expert missions abroad (all over Europe, Central and Eastern Asia, U.S.) and has been invited as a speaker, panel member, and participant in twinning projects for EU Commission, WHO, GIZ, World Bank etc. He has also served as the secondment as a German national expert to EU Commission Brussels