

Preety Agarwal

Preety Agarwal is the Mayor of North Delhi Municipal Corporation and Councillor from Ward No.57-N, Rohini-F. Though elected for the first time, she has a vast political knowledge owing to her family lineage on the same lines. Hers is the third generation involved in politics. Born on 23rd January, 1974, Agarwal graduated in Science from Delhi University and gained knowledge in various other subjects from some of the prestigious institutions of the country. As a multi-talented student, she was very active in sports and painting and had received many prizes in various events.

Agarwal entered into active politics in the year 2000 and since then there has been no looking back for her. Right to Education and Right to Health are some of her priority areas where she has been working tirelessly for a long time. Apart from this, she was a part of the cow awareness cell of the Bhartiya Janata Party, Gau Vansh Vikas Prakoshth wherein she actively took part in propagating that the cow is a member of the family. She believes that protection of cows and bullocks is integral to the Indian social philosophy.

Agarwal is also an ardent follower of the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, Shri Narendra Modi and takes keen interest and is a part of Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao initiative. By virtue of her public service, she was made the General Secretary of the Mahila Morcha Delhi State Bhartiya Janata Party and became the Secretary, BJP Delhi State. Thereafter she got elected as a member of the Corporation. Agarwal's main goal is to ensure the '3S', i.e. Swachhta, Shiksha and Swasthya in North Delhi areas and she leaves no stone unturned to achieve this.

During her tenure as Mayor, North DMC, Agarwal plans to run various awareness campaigns among sanitation workers and Residents' Welfare Associations. Similarly, such campaigns will be organized in Corporation schools with the help of technical staff of the Corporation. The idea behind such campaigns is to make the participants aware of the need for sanitation, education and leading a healthy life. She is ever eager to improve the image of the Corporation in the eyes of the people of Delhi by providing every possible facility to them and addressing their issues.

A leader par excellence, Agarwal considers herself as a social worker more than a politician and fights for the cause of the poor and the downtrodden. She has etched her name among the popular youth leaders not only in her ward but in the city as a whole.
