

Anand Kumar Singh

Anand Kumar Singh an I.R.S.E. officer of the Government of India (Ministry of Railways), is with N.H.A.I as Member (Projects). He has vast experience in Contract Management advising on PPP matters including improvisations in Model Concession agreements for PPP projects, policy for reconciliations, disputes & Arbitrations, Alternate PPP models, Standardisation of procurements for PPP including varied issues in Financial closures, Escrow accounts, Financial re-structuring, Project appraisals, viability gap funding, land acquisitions etc. Presently associated with stimulating participation of stakeholders with modifications in PPP premises and Hybrid Annuity Project. Played a lead role in finalisation of Model Contract Agreement for EPC contracts. Associated with Rail infrastructure and Highway sector for the last about 28 years with experience in planning and implementation of infrastructure projects and operations.

He holds both Bachelor of Technology (Civil engineering) and Master's degree from I.I.T. Delhi. He is an MBA (Finance) from include M.D.I. Gurgaon. His other specialisations are in the field of operations & logistics. His project, papers Innovative financing in Infrastructure, Non-budgetary Funding for Unviable Projects.