

Mukesh Khare

Mukesh Khare has been working at IIT Delhi since last 25 years after obtaining his doctorate degree in Faculty of Engineering from Newcastle University UK. Prof. Khare has graduated from University of Roorkee in Civil Engineering and did his Master of Engineering in Environmental Engineering. Prof. Khare has extensively worked in the area of Air Quality that includes outdoor and indoor. He has published more than 200 research publications in peer reviewed international and national journals, conferences and workshops. He has so far authored 6 books in the area of air quality modelling. Khare is Fellow of Institution of Engineers (India), a Chartered Engineer and elected fellow of Wessex Institute of Great Britain. He has been visiting faculty to Harvard University, USA; Ecole des Mines de Nantes, France; University of West Indies, Trinidad and Tobago. Khare has travelled extensively and developed strong research collaborations with many world leading institutions world over. With his extensive experience in Air Quality, Khare has recently been appointed a Expert Member of High level Task Force Chaired by PMO to deal with increasing air pollution problems in Delhi NCR.