

Rohit Magotra

Rohit Magotra is Masters in Environment Science with advanced degree in management from IIFM, Bhopal. He has 17 years plus technical and managerial experience working on thematic of environment, climate change, energy, policy research, agriculture, urban development and ICT4 Development in South Asia. He is currently Asst. Director, IRADe and leads the thematic area of Sustainable Urban Development in IRADe. He is currently engaged in policy research on issues related to climate change and cities in South Asia. He is leading research supported by project on Action Plan to manage Heat Stress in Indian cities of Delhi, Rajkot and Bhubaneswar.