

HE DR PAAVO VAYRYNEN

Minister for Foreign Trade and Development, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Finland

Dr Paavo Vayrynen is currently serving as the Minister for Foreign Trade and Development of Finland. He was elected a Member of Parliament in 1970 at the age of 23 and has served as a minister in the government of Finland in various capacities from 1975. He has been a member of the European Parliament from 1995 to 2007 and sat on its committee of Foreign Affairs. Having earned his doctorate in social science, Dr. Vayrynen has also been adjunct professor at the University of Lapland from 1996 till present.

