

DR ANDREW STEER

Director General for Policy and Research, Department for International Development (DFID), UK

---

Dr Andrew Steer, Director General for Policy and Research, Department for International Development (DFID), UK. Dr Steer is responsible for overseeing the UK Government's policy formulation and research on all international development issues. He also oversees DFID's Global Public Good programmes, trade policy and civil society partnerships. Prior to this he served as Director of the World Bank in Indonesia and Vietnam, and as Director of the World Bank's Environment Department. He has a PhD in economics from the University of Pennsylvania, and taught economics at Cambridge University.

