

MR SUNIT TANDON

Director, Indian Institute of Mass Communication

Mr Sunit Tandon is presently Director of the Indian Institute of Mass Communication, the premier mass communication and journalism institute of the country. Prior to this, he was Chief Executive of the Lok Sabha Television Channel, Lok Sabha Secretariat, Parliament of India. Mr

Tandon is also a well-known news and current affairs anchor on Indian national television (Doordarshan and Lok Sabha Television) and a radio broadcaster for over thirty years on All India Radio. He has presented primetime news bulletins and anchored election, budget, and other live telecasts, apart from conducting one-on-one interviews with leading personalities and moderating discussion programmes on diverse topics.