

His Holiness Acharya Shri Roop Chandra Ji Maharaj the President of Manav Mandir Mission Trust was born on 22 September, 1939 in Sardar Sahar, Rajasthan (India). He joined Jain Order (Jain Muni Diksha) on 15th October, 1952 by Acharya Shree Tulsi. Besides being a renowned academician, philosopher, writer and a poet he is also a scholar of Jain studies of great repute and comparative studies of Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam, Sikhism and Christianity. He was conferred “Man of the Year” in 2004 by American Biographical Institute and was the recipient of the honour by Amity Humanity Foundation and National AIDS Control Organisation. In rendering services to humanity and promoting peace, non-violence and spiritual values he has travelled over 50,000 kms on-foot throughout India and Nepal and also frequently travels to USA, Canada, UK, Sweden and other foreign countries. Over twenty books such as Roopayan, Mai Kehta Ankhon Dekhi and Wo Kya Jane Peer Parai and several ‘Pravachans’ by H.H. Poojya Acharya Shree has got worldwide appreciation. It can be downloaded at no cost from the website. His biography “Hans Akela” in novel format is written by Dr. Vineeta Gupta and published by prestigious Vani Prakashan, New Delhi, was released by Former President of India Smt. Pratibha Patil is warmly welcomed by the literary world of India.