

Mr. Rana Kapoor

Managing Director & CEO, YES BANK

President, ASSOCHAM

Rana Kapoor is a visionary business leader, professional entrepreneur and founder of YES BANK. Mr. Kapoor has been the driving force behind its pioneering model, which has established new paradigms in Indian banking. Mr. Kapoor has championed innovative management frameworks like Knowledge Banking – through YES BANK’s focus on the “Sunrise sectors of India”, and Responsible Banking – mainstreaming a business case for Corporate Social Responsibility and sustainability, which have been truly ahead of their times. Within just a decade of its operations, under Mr. Kapoor’s leadership, YES BANK has become India's fourth largest private sector Bank.

Beyond being a Banker, Mr. Kapoor has been a Change Agent, ushering positive change across community, society and at National level. Through his multiple public engagements and contributions with institutions like Board of Trade, Ministry of Finance, Indian Banking Association, Board of Governors of IICA, Min of Corporate Affairs, member of Prime Minister’s Trade & Industry advisory council, and most recently as the President of ASSOCHAM, he has facilitated public and social policy development in the country by evangelizing the cause of Indian industry towards achieving Economic Security of India.

Rana Kapoor has been awarded prestigious national and global recognitions, including The Asian Banker CEO Leadership Achievement Award for India, The Business Standard ‘Banker of the Year’ in 2011 and Ernst and Young ‘Entrepreneur of the Year’ award, among others.
