

Abhay Damle, IRS

Born on 15th August, 1966, he belongs to the City of Bhopal. He obtained his Degree in Mechanical Engineering from NIT, Bhopal in 1987. He went to Indian Institute of Technology, New Delhi to complete his Masters in Production Technology in January, 1989. Thereafter he was selected in Indian Engineering Services and did a brief stint with Indian Railways.

He belongs to 1989 Batch of Indian Revenue Service. He has served in Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra and Gujarat in six different cities.

He worked as Director of Central Institute of Road Transport, Pune for about two years. He has a rich experience of automobile testing and homologation.

Presently he is posted as Joint Secretary in Ministry of Road Transport and Highways. He is dealing with policy matters relating to road safety, transportation, vehicle regulations & emission norms.

He has a keen interest in sports having played cricket at University level. He also has a degree in Law.