

Hariprasad Hegde

Hari is 'Senior Vice President & Global Head – Operations' for Wipro Limited; US$ 8 bn, IT and Consulting Services provider with presence in 61 countries. Hari in his present role is responsible for all of the Operations functions that Support the Corporation globally. These among others includes the function that builds large commercial office facilities for Wipro. Hari also champions many sustainability initiatives for Wipro and has been writing and speaking on – future of work and its design, Sustainability, Water, Energy and Smart Cities. He is an active member of CII's (Confederation of Indian Industry) State Council and CII's National Committee for 'Water' and its National Council for 'Real Estate and Housing'. He was a core member of India's Planning Commission's Industry working group on 'Land & Water' and 'Green Manufacturing' for the 12th Five Year plan. Hari is on the Executive Board of IGBC (Indian Green Building Council) and sits on Asia Pacific World Regional Board of RICS (Royal Institution for Chartered Surveyors). He also Chairs the Electronics City Township Authority (ELCITA) – an Urban Local Body with municipal responsibilities to run the Electronic City Township. A Mechanical Engineer by training and lives in Bangalore.