

Sanjay Dhawan

Mr. Dhawan is Director at AETS for India and SAARC. Based in New Delhi, he is the main interlocutor for this region and is already executing projects for the EU in India and Sri Lanka. He is also the Project Director responsible for various EU funded projects including Air Quality Management, Public Diplomacy and Switch Asia-Sri Lanka project.

Mr. Dhawan holds a bachelors' degree in Engineering and a MBA in Marketing and Finance. He has worked across multiple sectors with international and national clients like EU, World Bank, ADB, Government of India, Shell, ABB, EDF, Suez Environment, Indian Oil etc. Over the past 30 years, he has managed several big-ticket projects (ranging from US$ 50 to 500 million) executed on turnkey or on project consultancy basis. He has multi-layered skills which include project planning and reporting, managing complex events including logistics management, organising and mobilising experts. He has global work-experience having worked in international locations in India, Middle East, Europe & Central Asia.