

Rama Krishna Rao Ravi

As of 2015, Rama Krishna Rao Ravi is the Director of planning for Andhra Pradesh Capital Region Development Authority. She was previously the Chief Planning Officer of the Outer Ring Road Growth Corridor Project for the Hyderabad Metropolitan Development Authority. She also worked with the Tirupati Urban Development Authority for more than 20 years in various positions, including planning officer and secretary.

She obtained her Master of city planning in 1981 from the Indian Institute of Technology in Kharagpur, and then pursued a certificate course in 'action planning for urban development' from University college London in 1989. More recently, she completed a training programme in 'environmental building guidelines for Hyderabad' organised by HMDA in 2009.

She is a member of the Indian Council of Architecture, as well as an associate member of the Institute of Town Planners.